

2021 November 25

Research for Health in the Syrian Conflict Conference

9:15-9:30

Registration and welcoming
(Welcoming+House Keeping).

9:30-9:35

Welcoming note: Dr Abdulkarim Ekzayez (R4HSSS/SPHN/SBMS).

9:35-9:45

Keynote speaker: Dr Aula Abbara (SPHN).

9:45-10:30

Plenary session: The impact of COVID19 on health in Syria

Characterization of the Third Wave of Outbreak in Northwest Syria 19-COVID
Orwa Al Abdulla

Mask use among communities in Northwest Syria pandemic 19-during the COVID
Diana Rayes

Qualitative longitudinal study of covid19 response governance across syria
Yazan Douedari

10:30-10:45

Break

10:45-11:30

Breakout Group1
Health systems adaptation in the Syrian conflict

Perceptions and Attitudes Towards Primary Health Care Among Healthcare Workers and Other Relevant Stakeholders in Northwest
Sara Basha

Qualitative research of local health care professionals' working motivations in Syria
Agneta Kallström

Evaluation of Surgical Capacity in Northwest Syria
Shoaib Hussain

10:45-11:30

Breakout Group2
Access to healthcare inside Syria and in neighbouring countries

Mapping accessibility to hospital care in pre-conflict Syria: a comparative spatial study
Mhd Nour Audi

Negotiating medical evacuation during siege: 2016 a case study of the evacuation from Aleppo, Syria
Zahed Katurji

Improving access to specialized health services for Syrian refugees in Turkey. A case study in telehealth
Ammar Hasan Beck

Turkey's Health Care Response to Syrian Refugees: Strides and Remaining Challenges
Nihal Kayali

11:30-12:15

Lunch break

12:15-13:00

Breakout Group3

Burden of diseases and evaluations of clinical intervention

The effect of internal displacement due to armed conflict on tuberculosis treatment outcome in northwest Syria
Abdulselam Daif

Respiratory health in the Syrian conflict: an analysis of primary data from the Syrian American Medical Society
Lena Basha

SBOMS a successful experience of postgraduate medical specialized education for physicians in Syria during the conflict.
Safwan Alchalati

12:15-13:00

Breakout Group4

Medical training, Mental health, and gender sensitivity

Prioritizing and developing family skills as a protective factor for Syrian family mental health
Aala El-Khani

Exploring the gender sensitivity in both policies and practices that are oriented towards the female workforce in the health structures and facilities in the Syrian opposition-controlled areas.
Mouna Khaity

Preliminary research to contribute to development psychological first aid program in the Syrian context
Mohammad Abo-Hilal

13:00-13:15

Keynote speaker: Professor Samer Jabour(AUB).

13:15 - 14:15

Plenary session: Research culture in the Syrian context.

Chair: Abdulkarim Ekzayez

confirmed Panellists:
Dr Housam Al Nahhas
(SPHN)

Dr Maher Al Aref
(UOSSM France – R4HSSS)

Kristen Meagher
(CHRG at KCL – R4HSSS)

Dr Hani Taleb (UDER – Relief Experts)

Other panellists to be confirmed later

14:15

Closing remarks